

Export requirements for plants, plant produce and products to the European Union

Introduction

This guidance is only valid from 01 January 2021. For further information see import and export guidance from 1 January 2021.

This guide provides guidance on the export regulations for plants, plant produce and other regulated objects which are subject to phytosanitary control. For full details please refer to European Union (EU) Commission Implementing Regulation 2019/2072 and the EU's Emergency Measures legislation.

This is the UK's interpretation of the current import regulations to the EU. When you export regulated plants and plant products to the EU, you need to:

- Check whether a phytosanitary certificate (PC) is required by contacting the plant health authority or a plant health inspector in the destination country (<https://www.ippc.int/en/countries/all/list-countries>);
- Apply for a PC from the relevant GB plant health authority before export;
- Check if your plants require laboratory testing of samples to ensure they are free from pests and diseases or inspections during the growing season - contact your local plant health inspector to find out if your plants need these tests before applying for a PC.

Plants, fruit, vegetables, cut flowers, soil and other regulated objects (for example machinery) fall into 5 categories:

- 'prohibited' plants you cannot export to the EU unless you get a scientific research licence or an exception ('derogation') to the rules - these are labelled as 'prohibited'
- 'prohibited (pending risk assessment)' plants you cannot export to the EU unless they have been risk assessed by the European Food Safety Authority (EFSA) - these are labelled as 'prohibited (pending risk assessment)' - it does however exclude in vitro material, naturally or artificially dwarfed woody plants for planting of those genera
- 'regulated and notifiable' material you can only export to the EU with a phytosanitary certificate and must be notified in advance of landing to EU Member State - these are labelled as 'regulated and notifiable'
- 'regulated' material you can only export to the EU with a phytosanitary certificate but may not require advanced notification of landing and could be subject to a lower frequency of checks - these are labelled as 'regulated'
- 'unregulated' material you can export to the EU without any conditions - these are labelled as 'unregulated'

Commodities covered by prohibitions include both commodities covered under Annex VI of 2019/2072 and the Commission Implementing Regulation 2018/2019 for High-Risk Plants.

The guide is divided into the following commodity groups:

- plants for planting
- fruit
- seeds for planting
- cut flowers, parts of plants and vegetables
- tubers (including potatoes)
- other

This guide will only refer to exports from Great Britain (GB), which includes England, Wales and Scotland to the EU. GB will be treated as a third country by the EU from the 01 January 2021. Marketing Requirements

Certain plants and seeds for planting are covered by English/Great Britain Marketing Regulations and their corresponding EU Marketing Directives. The conditions of these regulations and directives must be met, in addition to any phytosanitary requirements, before marketing can take place following import or export.

Links to the Marketing Regulations (each of which reference their corresponding EU Marketing Directive) can be seen below:

- The Marketing of Fruit Plant and Propagating Material \(England\) Regulations 2017
- The Seed Marketing \(England\) Regulations 2011
- The Seed Potatoes \(England\) Regulations 2015
- The Marketing of Ornamental Plant Propagating Material \(Great Britain\) Regulations 1999
- The Forest Reproductive Material \(Great Britain\) Regulations 2002
- The Marketing of Vegetable Plant Material \(Great Britain\) Regulations 1995

Following the end of the Transition period all the above regulations have been amended by:

- The Marketing of Seed, Plant and Propagating Material \(England\) Regulations 2020

This document is only to be used for guidance and exporters should still contact the importing Member State in the European Union to confirm what the import requirements and processes are before exporting. The EU's legislation, including emergency measures can be found on the EU's website.

Anything denoted by a yellow highlight, is what has changed from the previous version of the document.
